

CODE OF CONDUCT

GWH JMUN 2024

GENERAL DELEGATE CONDUCT

Note: Any violations of this CoC can result in a delegate's disqualification from the current and all future editions of GWHMUN as well as other Greenwood High affiliated events; All violations of these disciplinary rules will be reported to the delegate's institution or their Faculty Advisor, with a strong recommendation for disciplinary action.

1. Attire

- Delegates are expected to be dressed in Western Formal Attire for the duration of the Conference.
 - Full sleeve formal shirts paired with formal pants are allowed. Ties, blazers or full suits are not mandatory, but are recommended.
 - Jeans and sneakers are absolutely prohibited.
 - Should one choose to wear a skirt, it must be of appropriate length (knee-length).
 - Delegates of the AIPPM are permitted to wear formal Indian traditional attire. (No lehengas nor lungis. You may wear sandals if you are a part of AIPPM)
 - Any breach of the attire legislation will result in the delegate being barred from entering the conference and informed to return in appropriate attire to be allowed entry. The Security Team will have the final say in such matters pertaining to attire.

An example of what not to wear

Examples of what you can wear, courtesy of our lovely Executive Board!

GENERAL DELEGATE CONDUCT

Note: Any violations of this CoC can result in a delegate's disqualification from the current and all future editions of GWHMUN as well as other Greenwood High affiliated events; All violations of these disciplinary rules will be reported to the delegate's institution or their Faculty Advisor, with a strong recommendation for disciplinary action.

2. Decorum

- In order to respect fellow Delegates, all members of the committee are to maintain decorum during the Conference.
- GWHMUN will not tolerate any instances of verbal or physical harassment, or discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, caste, creed, religion, nationality, or physical features, both within and outside of the committee.
- If the secretariat deems it necessary, offenders may be barred from the remainder of the conference.
- Offences may also be escalated to the Head Delegate, Faculty Advisor, or respective head of the delegate's institution on a case-by-case basis.
- The conference follows a strict zero-tolerance policy to narcotics, alcohol, vape pens, or substances of any kind. Periodic inspections for the same will be conducted by security members.
- Delegates found violating this policy will be prohibited from further Committee Sessions and will be reported to the Faculty Advisor of their respective institution.

GENERAL DELEGATE CONDUCT

Note: Any violations of this CoC can result in a delegate's disqualification from the current and all future editions of GWHMUN as well as other Greenwood High affiliated events; All violations of these disciplinary rules will be reported to the delegate's institution or their Faculty Advisor, with a strong recommendation for disciplinary action.

3. Guidelines for delegates

- Delegates are NOT permitted to visit other committees except the ones they have been allotted to, unless they are delegates of the IPC.
- Delegates are requested to respect the school property, including, but not limited to, tables, chairs, walls etc. Any damages will be noted by the secretariat, and fines will be levied respectively.
- Delegates are required to carry their School ID cards with them, or they will not be allowed to enter their respective committee.
- Delegates will be expected to wear the ID cards provided to them by the Registrations Team at all times during the conference.
- The SOCIALS event will be held at the exact timings of the schedule. No extensions of any sort.
- Any form of adulteration with water is strictly prohibited. Delegates will NOT be allowed to carry water bottles containing liquids into the Socials Venue.
- Delegates are expected to comply with all instructions provided by organizing members and security throughout the MUN.
- Delegates are recommended to bring cash to the conference to buy from the food stalls.
- If a delegate wishes to bring their own food, or if a delegate has medication, they are to email the Secretariat at gwhmun@greenwoodhigh.edu.in with the same information.

CONFERENCE RULES AND REGULATIONS

Note: Any violations of this CoC can result in a delegate's disqualification from the current and all future editions of GWHMUN as well as other Greenwood High affiliated events; All violations of these disciplinary rules will be reported to the delegate's institution or their Faculty Advisor, with a strong recommendation for disciplinary action.

- Any instances of plagiarism or use of AI including but not limited to ChatGPT and BardAI in speeches, chits, position papers, or committee documentation is strictly prohibited and will be moderated carefully by executive boards. If other sources have been used, delegates are required to quote their source of information.
- The Internet can be used only based on the discretion of the respective committee's Executive Board.
- Any form of pre-written material relating to Committee documentation (resolutions/working papers) in GA committees is strictly prohibited. The same applies to directives.

